Nakuru, Kenya

These students wanted to learn, they wanted to be at school. Not once did they complain about doing a task.

Mountain Park Academy

Coaching became easier when we built relationships outside of the court or field. The personal connection helped us communicate more effectively.

Swahili is mainly spoken in Kenya, so the best way to overcome the language barrier was to learn Swahili.

Sports were another way to unite the school and our mission team together.