What is the Well?

- The Well is a daytime service center for homeless and precariously-housed individuals in the local community.
- The facility, previously the Greyhound bus station in downtown Brunswick, has been remodeled to serve the needs of the target population.

The Well
Mission Statement:

To provide services and hospitality to the homeless individuals of Glynn by creating a safe place where people can meet, build relationships, and solve problems together.

Our Project

- We worked started our service-learning project when The Well was still under construction. We facilitated in the demolition for the remodeling of the Greyhound bus station.
- We also placed several donation boxes in the community to collect materials needed for the center.

Knowledge Gained

- We gained an understanding of the complexities involved in building a nonprofit facility.
- We also learned the importance of flexibility within the field of human services.
